

Ingham GSC	Implementation Project Objective/Outcomes	Results for Each Expected Outcome	# of children impacted by project	# of families impacted by project
Cavity Free Kids	Project 1 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• More child care centers and homes will include tooth brushing and oral health topics in their daily routines</li> </ul>	Three Cavity Free Kids Training workshops for staff in Child Care Centers and Preschools; Day Care Aides &amp; Relative Providers; and Home-visitor programs. The first was on 3/25/10 and 17 child care center staff attended, the second in May for Relative and Day Care Aides had 27 signed up, and the third was on June 10 for Home Visitors (14 staff from GPGS, EHS, CMH, FOS, PHN attended).	255 81 280	27 280
Joint PD Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Area kindergarten teachers, parents, and preschool staff will gain information and experience to help them work together for smoother transitions between preschool and kindergarten</li> </ul>	Joint Professional Development for 250 Head Start, GSRP, ECSE, Kindergarten and First Grade teachers “Putting the FUN back in Fundamentals” (3/9/10) Joan Firestone from Oakland ISD was the keynote speaker; and there were 6 facilitated breakout sessions all focusing on ways to help make the Standards for pre-K and GLCEs for Kindergarten and 1st grade engaging and fun. The training was co-sponsored by the Ingham Birth to Five Great Start Collaborative, Kindergarten Transition Committee, and the Lansing Kindergarten Steering Committee. At the training Math, Science, Social -Emotional and Literacy charts were shared showing the continuum from infant/toddler thru 1st grade and links State Program Quality Standards to grade level expectations.	3,750
Project ImPACT	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Increase understanding and more opportunities created for full family participation in intervention strategies for children with ASD</li> </ul>	Project ImPACT (Improving Parents as Communication Teachers) trains early intervention staff and others working with parents of young children techniques to teach parents of children with autism spectrum disorders (ASD) evidence-based strategies for improving their child’s social-communication skills during on-going family routines. The training included a two-day workshop and follow-up feedback on the provider’s implementation of the intervention as well as parent coaching skills. The first day of the workshop covered the program’s theoretical foundation and the intervention techniques. The second day covered strategies for conducting parent training, and provided additional practice opportunities for learning the intervention techniques and coaching parents. Thirty participants attended the trainings on April 22 &amp; 27 from a variety of GSC partner agencies including: GSRP, Early On, ECSE, Head Start, Health Department, CMH, GPGS and parents.	30

Advanced Coaching Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Increase the skill level and understanding of coaches and supervisors to more effectively help improve the quality of early care &amp; education in the community</li> </ul>	Advanced Coaching - Pat Wesley from the Frank Porter Graham Institute offered training on June 15 &amp; 16 for 12 education supervisors from Head Start, 2 CMH consultants, 6 field instructors from LCC and the 4 current coaches, the MSU Lab Director, and the Supervisor for Early On and Early Childhood Special Education. Information was presented for both coaches who are in a supervisory role, with inherent power, and coaches in a consultative role; and the participants included early childhood supervisors &amp; field instructors.	300	240
ACT Raising Safe Children Training		ACT Family Violence Prevention Train-the-Trainers Workshop 8/23 &amp; 8/24 - Thirty-one participants enrolled from 20 different agencies, including a variety from Head Start, Lansing School District, CMH and the Courts. Two participants requested the Spanish Language version of the training materials as well (Head Start and the Lansing Schools). There was 100% attendance on both days, with participants sharing lots of plans to implement the 8-week training series beginning in the Fall.	30
Parent Resource Guide	Project 2 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Updated information about parenting programs will be systematically collected and then widely distributed</li> </ul>	With Leadership from the GSC and working with the Parent Ed Workgroup, a new Parent Resource Guide has been published with community agency listings divided into six sections: Prenatal Education; Parenting Classes; Parent Support Groups; Parenting Resources; Home Visitation; and Parent-Child Activities. The first edition of the Parent Resource Guide was published in May 2010 and is posted on the GSC website: http://www.cacvoices.org/organizations/birthtofive/ParentResGuide. The GSC has been working with the Capital Area United Way to ensure that the information in the new Parent Resource Guide is also being entered into the 2-1-1 regional call center database.		300 250 100
Joint EC Brochure	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>An updated joint recruitment brochure describing early childhood programs will be developed and the information then widely distributed. GSC partner agencies, Community referral agencies, and faith-based organizations will have updated information about parenting programs, free preschools in the community, and how to finding other early care and education programs through Great Start Connections.</li> </ul>	GSRP and Head Start working with the GSC have developed, printed and distributed a joint recruitment brochure; and we are now working together on a common application form. The updated brochure features information about GSRP, Head Start, Project Find, and GS Connections website.		200