New Business <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Capacity Building--Jessica Yorko,              Ingham County Health Equity and              Social Justice Coordinator</li> </ul>	Regina Traylor opened meeting by asking members to take a look at why we are here today to serve on the Infant Mortality Coalition. What brings us to the table? What difference do we want to make in the community? What do we want to get out of this group? How can we shape a work plan that addresses the data driven needs of our community? Regina Traylor introduced Jessica Yorko- to help us with this process of becoming a stronger and vibrant coalition. Jessica Yorko gave background as to how she came to this role, her experience with coalitions and how coalitions are formed (people that are hurting will form coalitions that are powerful and active, but coalitions that are mostly formed by people that are there because of their work are not always as effective) Jessica Yorko asked “What is Health Equity? She referenced work done by Dr. Canady and Doak Bloss- Lack of equal access to resources based on race, place, class, culture, and
