 - f. Sustainability (brainstorming on sticky wall previously) prioritize goals next steps, top picks to work on. Have topics need to establish 3 goals (likely=Professional Development,

- parent voice in meetings, defining home visiting)-encouraged input from greater LLG and not just the CQI team
- g. Consider bringing in community sponsor to help offset cost of Professional Development activities to not rely on grant dollars for these activities
 - h. Parent Voice is intentional, continue including as standing LLG agenda item, etc.-consider opportunity to arrange home visitors to experience Parent Voice, parent panel with Q&A
 - i. Discussion regarding how parent voice could continue if LLG didn't continue-how would parents share their voice opinion-parent shared would have to share with home visitor, discussed surveys, parent led voice/potluck through GSC, consider having meetings at the home visiting agencies-reserve conference room and open up to staff to attend. Consider combining workgroups with another grant funded program (ex. ISAP). Child care and food are good incentives for attendance.
- Goal 1: Agencies offer to host LLG/Parent Voice meeting, if unable to financially sustain continued meetings
- Goal 2: Agencies represent their services via video or other means to share/define home visiting (home video shadowing)
- Goal 3: Professional Development scheduled-consider combining goals where home visitors experience parent voice meeting with parent panel at an agency location.

7. Parent Voice 20 Minutes

How can we help with the transition out of one program to another or simply exiting your program?

Parent shared they appreciate a slow transition with a specific plan to reassure parent. Perhaps a joint visit to get introduced to program or new staff member who will be assigned. This is a challenge to coordinate, and all depends on availability of staff when visits are scheduled. Pictures with bio or profile would help if joint visit not possible. Telephone or text message communication to establish relationship prior to first visit would be helpful. Parents shared that joint visits were very successful-provides peace of mind when existing provider is able to encourage and introduce new provider. Parents shared that they cried when their home visitor completed services. Parent shared they were disheartened when there was no notice of their home visitor leaving. Parents shared they would prefer to be given the choice to continue with program or discontinue if provider no longer available. Important for service provider to encourage parents to stay with program to give the replacement a chance for family's continued success. Importance of communication and sharing of resources. Consider video recording Parent Voice to be able to share the message more broadly-find way to harness the energy and emotion of the Parent Voice. Discussed Audio and/or Video.
