

August 10, 2016

8:00 am – 4:00 p.m.

Autism Spectrum Disorders Training for Paraprofessionals

When: Wednesday, August 10, 2016 (registration closes 8.2.16)

Time: 8:00am—4:00 pm

Where: Eaton RESA
1790 Packard Hwy, Charlotte, MI 48813

Cost: FREE

Register now at www.inghamisd.org Professional Development tab

Learning Targets:

- Impact ASD has on individual's ability to communicate, socialize and regulate behavior.
- Neurological differences between typically developing individuals and individuals with ASD.
- Consistent use of the following universal supports:
 - ✓ Functional communication systems
 - ✓ Visual supports
 - ✓ Differentiated instruction
 - ✓ Peer to peer supports
 - ✓ Behavioral programming and self-management strategies
 - ✓ Social narratives
 - ✓ Prompting strategies
 - ✓ Paraprofessional support
- Role of a paraprofessional working with an individual with ASD and the positive and negative impact the role can have on individuals' communication, socialization, behavior and learning.

For more information call 517.244.1298 or lminshal@inghamisd.org

Ingham Intermediate
School District
A Regional Educational Service Agency